FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Jury Convicts Acworth Woman of Possessing Meth with Intent to Distribute
State vs. Jacquelyn Elaine Moravetz

August 22, 2024 – District Attorney Susan K. Treadaway announces that on Thursday, August 21, a Cherokee County jury convicted Acworth resident Jacquelyn Elaine Moravetz, 45, of possessing methamphetamine with intent to distribute.

The jury returned a guilty verdict within minutes of beginning deliberations, following a two-day trial in Superior Court Judge Shannon Wallace's courtroom. Sentencing was set for October 30.

Cherokee Sheriff's Office first became aware of these charges on June 16, 2023, after responding to a 911 call. Another resident allowed deputies inside the home to conduct an investigation. Once inside, deputies observed in plain view illegal drugs and drug paraphernalia.

Cherokee Multi-Agency Narcotics Squad agents conducted a search warrant of the home and found multiple bags of methamphetamine with a combined weight of nearly 28 grams throughout the home, including within the defendant's personal belongings.

During the trial, responding deputies, CMANS agents, and a GBI crime lab scientist testified for the State. A total of 41 exhibits were presented, including the illegal drugs, GBI report, photos, and the defendant's interview with CMANS agents.

The case was investigated by the Cherokee Sheriff's Office and the Cherokee Multi-Agency Narcotics Squad. It was prosecuted by Assistant District Attorney Rebecca Visockis, with the assistance of Assistant District Attorney Megan Hertel, Office of the District Attorney, Blue Ridge Judicial Circuit.
