Old Business: BOE Budget Line-Item Inquiry by Chairman

Larry Mrozinski, Chair, spoke with the County Chairman & County Manager and was told verbatim "Do not expect that you are going to read $10,000 on your budget." County Manager stated that if the BOE needs more money the BOC would cover any overage of the $5,000. The BOE budget will not be discussed again by the county until the summer when the BOC has their retreat.

Natalie Green Hosea, Vice-Chair inquired as to "when the conversation with the County Manager happened and who all was in attendance"? Larry Mrozinski, Chair stated that it was soon after the last meeting by the BOE and the County Manager was present. After much discussion on the topic of the amount of the budget, Larry Mrozinski, Chair confirmed that any overages will be covered by the BOC.
